

ACCEPTABLE INTERNET USE POLICY

Orange County REMC Acceptable Use Policy ("AUP") governs the use of internet-related services provided by Orange County REMC. All contractual terms also apply. "Service(s)" refers to any internet-related service received from Orange County REMC or its affiliates including but not limited to, high speed internet access, dedicated internet access, wireless internet service, managed service, web hosting, data center hosting, enterprise hosting, voice services, video services or unified messaging. Upon signing the Terms and Conditions of Service Agreement, Customer agrees to abide by and be bound by the terms and conditions of this AUP. This AUP may be viewed at www.orangecountyfiber.coop and may be revised and reposted at any time, without notice.

VIOLATION OF ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

Violation of this AUP may result in Orange County REMC taking actions ranging from a warning to a suspension of privileges or termination of Services. Orange County REMC may, but is under no obligation to, provide Customer with advance notice of an AUP violation via e-mail or other communication, and request that such violation be immediately corrected prior to taking action. Orange County REMC reserves the right to act immediately and without notice to suspend or terminate Services in response to a court order or other legal requirement that certain conduct be stopped or when Orange County REMC determines, at its sole discretion, that which the conduct may:

- Expose Orange County REMC to sanctions, prosecution or civil action;
- Cause harm to or interfere with the integrity or normal operations of Orange County REMC networks or facilities;
- Interfere with another person's use of Orange County REMC services or the Internet;
- Damage or disparage the reputation of Orange County REMC or its services; or
- Otherwise present a risk of harm to Orange County REMC, its members, customers, employees, officers, directors, agents, or other representatives.

Orange County REMC may refer potential violations of laws to the proper authorities, may cooperate in the investigation of any suspected criminal or civil wrong, and will cooperate with authorities when required to do so by law, subpoena, or when the public safety is at stake. Orange County REMC assumes no obligation to inform Customer that information has been provided to law enforcement authorities and, in some cases, may be prohibited by law from providing such notice. Orange County REMC shall not be liable for any damages of any nature suffered by Customer or other user or third party resulting in whole or in part from Orange County REMC exercising any of its rights under this AUP.

PROHIBITED USES AND ACTIVITIES

General Use Policy

Customer is responsible for complying with the AUP. Customer is also responsible for the actions of others who may be using the Services under Customer's account. Customer must respond in a timely manner to complaints and/or notices concerning the Services. If Orange County REMC is alerted to or otherwise becomes aware of violations or potential violations of this AUP, Orange County REMC will take whatever measures it deems necessary and appropriate to stop or prevent those violations.

Abuse of e-mail; Spamming

Mass e-mailing and "mail-bombing" (sending mass e-mail or deliberately sending excessively large attachments to one recipient) are prohibited. Business-class accounts may have different volume limitations and usage will be judged by type and use of account. Forging e-mail headers (transmission information) is prohibited. Using another computer without authorization to send e-mail messages or to retransmit e-mail messages for the purpose of misleading recipients as to the origin is prohibited. Use of e-mail to harass or intimidate other users is prohibited. Violation of the CAN-SPAM Act of 2003, or of any state or federal law regulating e-mail, is a violation of this AUP and Orange County REMC reserves the right to seek damages and other available relief against Customer and/or any third parties as applicable. For purposes of this AUP, such violations are determined by Orange County REMC in its sole discretion.

No Resale/Sharing of Services

Customer is prohibited from reselling the Service or otherwise making the Service available to third parties, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, unless expressly permitted by Service agreement. Customer will not make the Services available to anyone other than family and household guests. Customer will not resell or redistribute, nor allow others to resell or redistribute, access to the Service in any manner, except as expressly provided in any contract for service. The limitation on resale or redistribution of access includes, but is not limited to, hosting applications such as the provision of e-mail, FTP, HTTP, VoIP, and Telnet access. Although resale of such services is prohibited, a business rate plan allows for the hosting of these services for the business's own purpose (ex: employee email, basic business website for marketing).

CUSTOMER CONDUCT

Facilitating a Violation of this AUP

Customer is prohibited from advertising, transmitting, or otherwise making available any software, program, product, or service that is designed to violate or facilitate a violation of this AUP and/or any law. This includes, but is not limited to, the facilitation of the means to spam, infringe on copyrights, and pirate software.

- Illegal Activity; Tortious Conduct
- Any use of the Services to violate any local, state or federal law or regulation also violates this AUP. Prohibited activities include, but are not limited to:
  - Transmitting any defamatory, libelous, fraudulent, deceptive, indecent, offensive or obscene materials;
  - Using the Services to deliver spyware, or secretly or deceptively obtain the personal information of third parties (e.g., phishing);
  - Intentionally spreading computer viruses;
  - Exporting software or technical information in violation of U.S. export control laws;
  - Gaining unauthorized access to private networks;
  - Engaging in the transmission of pirated software, movies, music, etc.
  - Unauthorized copying, distribution or display of copyrighted material, along with the illegal use of copyrighted torrents, Usenet, and other P2P sharing software;
  - Conducting or participating in illegal gambling;
  - Soliciting for illegal pyramid schemes through e-mail or USENET postings;
  - Violating rules, regulations, and policies applicable to any network, server, computer database, web site, or ISP that you access through the Services;
  - Threatening, harassing, abusing, or intimidating others;
  - Engaging in activity, illegal or not, that Orange County REMC determines in its sole discretion to be harmful to its subscribers, operations, or networks;
  - Making fraudulent offers of products, items or services; or
  - Creating or attempting to utilize a domain name that is defamatory, fraudulent, indecent, offensive, deceptive, threatening, abusive, harassing, or which damages the name or reputation of Orange County REMC.

Third Party Rules

Customer may have access through the Services to search engines, subscription Web services, chat areas, bulletin boards, Web pages, USENET, social networking sites or other services that promulgate rules, guidelines or agreements to govern their use. Failure to adhere to any such rules, guidelines, or agreements shall be a violation of this AUP. Orange County REMC reserves the right not to accept a posting from newsgroups where there is actual knowledge that content of the newsgroup violates the AUP.

NETWORK MANAGEMENT

As permitted by law, Orange County REMC may establish appropriate limitations on bandwidth, data storage, or other aspects of the Service by amending this AUP. Subscribers must comply with all such limitations prescribed by Orange County REMC.

Network Security

It is Customer's responsibility to ensure the security of network and the equipment that connects to the Services. Customer is required to take all necessary steps to secure and manage the use of the Services in such a way to assure that network abuse and/or fraudulent activity is prevented. Violations of system or network security may result in criminal and/or civil liability. Failing to secure system against abuse or fraudulent activity is a violation of this AUP. Customer is responsible for configuring and securing network and the Services to prevent unauthorized access to Customer's systems and/or the Orange County REMC network. Customer is also responsible for any fraudulent activity that may occur due to failure to secure network and the Services. Customer will be responsible if unknown third parties utilize the Services at any time for the purpose of illegally distributing licensed software, engaging in abusive behavior or engaging in any type of fraudulent conduct. Customer may not, through action or inaction (e.g. failure to secure network), allow others to use network for illegal, fraudulent or inappropriate uses, and/or any other disruptive, provoking, or abusive behavior that is in violation of these guidelines.

Responsibility for Content

Customer is responsible for any content offered or received through the Service.

Password Security

If applicable, a password provides access to individual accounts. It is Customer's responsibility to keep passwords secure. Customer is responsible for any and all access to, or use of the Services through the account. Attempting to obtain another user's account password is prohibited.

Web Hosting and Data Center Hosting Surveillance

Orange County REMC performs routine surveillance of its networks in connection with its web hosting, data center hosting, and related services. Although Orange County REMC will not, as an ordinary practice, proactively monitor activities for violations of this AUP, there may be instances in which Orange County REMC, through its routine surveillance, finds violations of this AUP, and reserves the right to take whatever action it deems appropriate in its sole discretion.
